If the space provided is not sufficient, an additional page may be added. However, requests should not exceed one full page.

Application Policies

Applications for major, annual events must be submitted by the third Wednesday of January for review at the January Session Meeting. Additional applications for events not on the city calendar at the beginning of the year, will be accepted throughout the year, as necessary. Events will be judged based upon needs expressed in each application and in relation to one another. Each group or committee will be notified immediately, upon approval.
